AFI Sunday Evening Lectures

Sunday 11th April
Christine Broadbent

The Cosmic Coupling of Jupiter and Uranus

About every 14 years Jupiter and Uranus connect and from June 2010 to January 2011, their coupling has special import. It includes the stages of their mutual ingress into Aries. This brand new start for Uranus has not occurred for 84 years. We will explore how this is likely to impact on the larger cardinal challenge. What does this signify if you have a personal Jupiter/Uranus link in your chart eg. if born 1955, late 1968/69 or 1983 or when they opposed each other?

Sunday 2nd May
Carmel Treacy
Synastry

SYNASTRY enables us to examine relationships, evaluate their potential for success and gain deeper understanding and insight into relationship dynamics between lovers, friends, family or work associates...

Carmel Treacy is an Astrologer from the Hibiscus Coast and is a daily practitioner of astrology with a particular interest in Synastry. Carmel will explore synastric principles and how to best evaluate relationship compatibility.

Sunday Workshop with Colleen

On Your Wave Length

- An Introduction to the Astrology of Harmonics

Sunday 18th April

Harmonics may seem a daunting subject but this will not be a daunting workshop – it is designed to be an introduction to a facet of astrology that can give a greater depth of understanding to your natal chart. Understanding the principal of Harmonics is understanding the deeper meaning of the aspects in the natal chart - not from the perspective that Harmonics create aspects but from the perspective that Harmonic charts give an arcane insight to which aspects create the greatest bias and motivation within your make up.

What happens when your chart is set up in different harmonics? What happens when this chart is applied to your Natal chart? What can we discover lurking between the cusp lines? Which wave length are you on?

Designed to be a investigative fun workshop we will work with class charts so be sure to supply your data when registering.

Venue: 119 Queen Street Northcote Point

Time: 10 am - 4 pm Fee: $80 Morning tea provided.

Registration essential. Extensive handouts and all relevant personal charts provided for this workshop.

Evening Classes with Christine Broadbent

Mysteries of Timing

Explore the way the moving planets unlock our natal secrets

March 18—May 22nd

Christine's ongoing Thursday evening classes, which explore one of the great astrological mysteries: timing. We work with two strands in every class – your understanding of your own birth chart and linking this to the patterns that unfold through time via the transiting planets. See details of these classes in the previous newsletter or contact Christine (09) 443 2116 or 021 410126 Christine@astrologyspot.com.au
