AFI Sunday Evening Lecture

Sunday 31st July Astrologers Are You Ready?

Tonight the spotlight is on you and your knowledge of astrology. In what promises to be a fun and very informative evening, we are holding an astrological version of a pub quiz.

Sorry but no pints will be poured however points will be given for correct answers. Those attending will be divided into teams for the quiz, then the members of the winning team will be matched against each other for the honour and prize (yes there will be prizes) of being "The Champion of Champions" astrologer of the year. Thus becoming world famous in New Zealand as an astrologer.

There will be no trick questions and there will be a variety of topics to suit all astrological tastes, from the mundane to the magic of midpoints. Be there and bring your "A game"; that's "A" for astrology.

Horary Astrology : Dignities & Debilities

The key to any judgement of a Horary chart, cast for the moment in time a question is asked, is to ascertain the strength of the significating planet. Questions like, "Who is the best person for the job?" - "Can this person be trusted?" - "Is my father's illness serious?" - "Will I gain by dragging this case out?" - "Will she marry me?" - "Who will win the match - them or us?" - and with the RWC upon us, you'll be given lots of opportunities to test this particular horary question out over the weeks to come!

The strength of a planet plays a crucial role in the outcome - for better or worse - of the question asked, and this half-day workshop will focus on evaluating just that. We'll be delving into considerations such as rulership, exaltation and fall, terms and faces, speed, cazimi and combustion. Plus the opportunity to ask all those 'need to know' questions that have been on your mind!

Time: 1.00 pm - 4.30 pm

Date: 27 August 2011

Place: 119 Queen Street, Northcote Point

Fee: $35 (includes charts, handouts, refreshments)
